THE MINIA TRIAL.

SELF-CONSTITUTED

COMMITTEE.

AGREEMENT TO KILL ALL

THE ENGLISH.

The trial has begun at Minia of Abdul

Husseini, Ahmed Hefat, Hussein Targaf,

Mohamed Ali Rahay, Rial El-Gamal,

and Tewfik Ismail, charged with High

Treason, War Treason, and 19 offences against various proclamations under martial law.

The Court consists of Lieut.-Col. P. S.

Nicoll (president), Lieut.-Col. A. G. Lind,

D.S.O., Lieut.-Col. P. A. Chambers, Capt.

D. Stephens, and Lieut. A. B. Townsend,

D.C.M.

Mr. J. P. Foster appears for the prosecution.

Capt. L. T. Thorpe was present

as judge-advocate.

Abdel Rasiq, Rial el Gamal, Rahmy

Husseini Targaf, and Ahmed Hefat were represented by Mr. Perrot, Maître Walid

Doe and Demetrio Bey appeared for Tewfik

Ismail.

Mr. Perrot, on behalf of his clients, objected to the charge of high treason and war treason, and counsel for other accused brought a similar objection. The Court, however, overruled the objection, holding that the charges were formally correct.

The Prosecutor, in his opening address, referred the point which had come up for decision through the objection of the defence counsel. He then stated that Sheikh Hefat, at the meeting, had been heard to say "There can never be independence without bloodshed." Demonstrations began at Minia on March 12, and continued on March 13 and 14. On March 15 telegraphic wires were cut.

On March 16 began the abuse of the English by an excited mob. On that day an agreement was made to kill all the English. On March 18 Mr. Callender was driven from his office by an excited mob, amongst whom was Sheikh Hefat. The Mudir then ordered the prohibition of all demonstrations. Sheikh Hefat had opposed this order. A letter was sent to the Mudir signed by Rial el Gamal and Tewfik Ismail that their Committee had decided to take over all the markets. The Turkish flag was notified in Minia during the demonstrations. Sheikh Hefat had carried it out during the demonstrations before Mr. Callender's office. Rial el Gamal was acting as the secretary for this self-constituted committee at the meetings held at Minia.

Brigadier-General E. M. Colston deposed

that he was the commander of Colston's force, and was the convening officer of the Court.

A. C. MacBarnett deposed that he was a member of the Inner Temple, and had been called to the Bar in 1892. He had been appointed judge of Court of First Instance in 1906, served as such at Abis for seven years, and in 1913 was promoted to the Court of Appeal. Witness movement in Egypt, Mustapha Pasha Kamel was the head of the movement, the object of which was the final overthrow of the British government in Egypt, and the restoration of this country to its former rule under Turkey. Mohamed Pasha Mahmood was also connected with the movement. Mohamed Pasha Mahmood had been Mudir of Bahari, but was relieved owing to certain improper practices in which he had been implicated. Sharawi Pasha was a well-known member of the party, and had been a leader in Cairo. The party undoubtedly comprised men who were interested in the return of Egypt to Turkish rule. El Ashar University was being used as a centre for the movement's leaders. Witnesses identified six of the accused who arrived at Wasta in a boat. Rial el-Gamal concerning the Council of Minia. Witnesses mentioned Dr. Abdel R. Rial el-Gamal replied that Rias was president and he (Gamal) was secretary. At Minia witness was handed the minutes of the committee by an officer. Witness had read the minutes at March 19. No one could give such orders as those mentioned to the entire judge at Samuil, dealing with cases at Minia, except the Ministry of Justice. The Mudir had no power to give such orders. Witness produced a copy of the following letter which had been sent by the self-constituted committee to the Mudir, Minia.

"An incident of murdering some Englishmen in the railway train at Deirut station occurred on March 12. The Minia Pasha is requested to investigate the case. As it is of importance the Nationalist Committee of Minia has decided to ask you to please send an official copy of the dossier of the above enquiry. With respects, Riad el Gamal, lawyer, secretary, Ahmed Abd el Rasiq, President.
