

ALEXANDER

(By JOSEPH)

(BY JOHN
1. 3 of the

airo.

Dr. Breccia published from the early
tury on ecclesiastics, nine lines. They were Saleh el-Din, and the similar to those of a
personal memorials for were records of some celebrates the inscription "calls the Georgian, "agios pater presbyteros and oicon held offices analogous and bishop.

A full account is given out at the ancient Ibrahmieh and Had C.B. and Lieut. Col the results of which antiquities was concerned although in some cases attained. Dr. Alex. G. life of Mr. Henry Salt General in Egypt from facts of the life of a and amateur archaeology the British Museum Egyptian antiquities. trait of Salt, and another, are supplied.

HOUSE FA
The home famine
much resembled that
of Salt's, quoted by
"I shall return to Ak
procure a place to pu
is just now so crowd
it is not possible to
even for temporary

The most important
the "Bulletin," is the Breccia upon the an
in the Fayoum where covered the remains o
dile deity Phosphor
and several paintings
on the city of Alexan
the Museum. This d
not restricted to the
www.ancientegypt.com

sulting from his own
those monuments a
found by the fellahs
Fund and M. Lefebvre
Antiquities.
The papyri are now
lin, Florence, Milan,
namburg, also in F
tions have been edit Huet in their work

by M. G. Leleuvre in "Antiquities," and by this article the author gives a geographical surroundings of the theatre and of monuments, carefully utilising both for what he has in his own time and whose greatest time the later Ptolemies. He also describes the temples and has been found, common

ros, of which there a
The erudition of D
attach to what he has
and its antiquities,
religious, a great d
Ptolemaic Egypt. F
scriptions he gave, w
account of the viciss
several of the later
of these concerning Aethiopian is used

Some of the inscriptions of the rite of asylum temples. This was a to that of the Pales Old Testament, and prototypes by the C

Theophilan papyr
cording the due pe
people of the act
manded by the Ed
reason to think
a Christian who in
became a renegade
almost certainly c
inhabitants of the
The number of Ch
kind from this part

small. The people from the madding whirl at that city of fighting over disputing Theodolians were crocodiles as their to trust to the ancient time and harvest, he as dwelling place he

an source,
ous spirit, is
p the tale of
cient Egypt,
approach it,
mere back-
The River of
stream beside

Minister who inte

longer abroad
in educational
the establish-
e of Archaeo-
the highest
both in our
ness. It is
and to-day be-
sters in that
amongst civi-
on the man-

Thicker With

cent given
ERS ARE
 (ADVT).