PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Sultana Melek returned to Cairo officially yesterday morning from her summer abode at Mamoura.

Rushdy Pasha, the Prime Minister came to Ramleh on Friday afternoon from Cairo and spent two nights at his villa at Carlton returning to the capital yesterday morning.

The Cairo correspondent of the "Times," who is an official of the Egyptian Government, writing to that newspaper on the subject of "Cairo on Armistice Day," observes: "On this occasion it is perhaps permissible to pay a tribute to the loyalty and devotion to duty of the Egyptian officials, headed by the Cabinet, since 1914. The Cabinet of Rushdi Pasha finds itself at the end of the war justly possessing an authority and prestige among the Egyptian as well as the European element of the population which no other Egyptian Cabinet ever enjoyed."

The death is announced of Lieutenant Francis Edmund Storrs, R.N.V.R., the brother of Lieut.-Colonel Ronald Storrs, Military Governor of Jerusalem, from pneumonia following influenza. Lt. Storrs was born at Bury St. Edmunds in 1883. He was educated at Temple Grove, Radley, and Jesus College, Cambridge. At Radley he won a senior scholarship and the gold medal. At Cambridge he was a scholar of his college, and took classical honours. On leaving Cambridge he studied law, and in due time was called to the Bar at the Inner Temple. In 1908 he was appointed under the Imperial Education Department to Elphinstone College, Bombay, where he served two years, and then accepted the Professorship of English at the College, Rangoon. On the outbreak of war he several times offered himself for enlistment or a commission in the Army, but was rejected on medical grounds. He was then appointed to the control of the Permit Department of the Russian Government Supply Committee, and for his services was awarded the Order of St. Anne. In 1916 he received a commission in the R.N.V.R., and proceeded to Greece, where he was engaged in the Naval Intelligence Department until recalled for special work at the War Cabinet in November, 1917. He was engaged on this work to within a few days of his death.

News has been received in Cairo of the safe arrival of Major-General Salmond and Captain Ross-Smith, who recently left Cairo in a Handley Page machine for India. They flew by way of Damascus, Baghdad, Bushira, and Sharbach, reaching Karachi thirty-six hours after leaving Egypt, a trip of 2548 miles. They used the same machine as that in which they had travelled from England to Egypt last August. They afterwards went from Karachi to Delhi.

In a War Office letter, dated November 22, 1918, Dr. Llewellyn Phillips of Cairo, is informed that on relinquishing his Commission he is granted the honorary rank of Lieut. Colonel on ceasing to be employed.

We have received P.T. 50 from Mr. F. W. Rowlatt for the Brotherhood Treat for Cairo Waifs.

News has been received by the Chief Brother of Saint Catherine's College at Alexandria of the death in action of Brother Kotska-Vincent, Professor of the College of the Holy Heart at Moharrem Bey. He was killed on October 31 on the Belgian front, was 20 years of age and was a soldier in the 6th Colonial Regiment of the French Army.

PURIFYING ALEXANDRIA.

ALEXANDRIA GIRLS FOUND IN A BROTHEL.

On Monday last we announced that two respectable Jewish families at Alexandria had informed the Government that they had each lost a daughter, the two girls having mysteriously left home without leaving a trace of their whereabouts. These girls were 16 and 17 years of age and they were employed in the firm of Messrs. Contarelli Brothers, the cigarette manufacturers. The girls were found on Saturday by the police in a brothel at Alexandria. As one of the girls is under 17 years of age the proprietress of the immoral establishment where they were discovered is to be prosecuted for enticing a minor to prostitution.

RESULT OF RAMLEH BOULEVARD CLEARANCE.

(To the Editor of the Egyptian Gazette).

Sir,—Do the authorities realize what goes on at night in Alexandria? In a few minutes, in Cherif Pasha St. to-night, I saw 3 garris being employed to decoy customers.

Apparently the occupants were some of those women recently turned away from the Rue de Ramleh, etc., or at least they were of that type. Their method was to drive slowly near one and quietly say something (from the garri behind had the window drawn over) to attract attention. Presumably the garri driver knew just when to stop and so on.

I actually saw one fellow caught thus, during my few minutes observation; he was attracted, stepped into the darkness of the garri, which was immediately driven off. Ought not this practice to be dealt with severely? Surely it could be stopped easily.

Yours, etc.,

A Briton.

KANTARA NOTES.

R.O.D. R.E. TOURNAMENT.

(By Scribe).

Kantara, Dec. 12:

What one would term an all-round splendid tournament was presented at the R.O.D. R.E. Boxing ring on Wednesday. The programme consisted of 9 contests, all of which were good, the men being evenly matched.

Three of the G.B.D. officials officiated viz. Dixie Brown (referee) Lieut. Gibson (Judge) and Sgt. E. Forward in his usual manner. M.C'd, and with the help of Capt. Barnard R.E. (time-keeper) and Sergt. Lumbrought the tournament to a great success.

The results of the contests were as follows:-

4 Rounds (9st 9lb) Sapper Gregory (R.E.) v. Sapper Davidson (R.E.). The latter was slightly the superior until the last round which was fairly even. At the conclusion the referee awarded the verdict to Davidson.

4 Rounds Contest (10st. 4lb) Driver Lloyd R.O.D. R.E. v. Driver Duckworth (A.S.C.). Lloyd was the better of the two throughout, and received the verdict.

6 Rounds (9st 6lb) Sapper Regan (R.E.) v. Driver Brown (A.S.C.). An excellent fight, the main feature throughout being that one man was boxing the other fighting—boxing wonwithout a shadow of doubt both men expected to win, Brown started off well. In both the second and third rounds he had Regan down. Comedy intervened, Regan falling through the ropes. At the end of the sixth round. Regan was declared the winner on points. Both men received great applause on leaving the ring.

6 Rounds (11st 4lb). Sapper Bayley (R.E.) v. Sgt. Whiteford (R.F.A.). The Artillery man was too good for Bayley, Whiteford found his mark every time. Bayley, seeing it was no good, gave up in the second round.

6 Rounds (10st 7lb). Spr. Rider R.E. v. Private Williams (— Regt.). A good contest, both men being evenly matched; the referee's decision was a draw.

4 Rounds (9st 2lb). Pte. Douglas (Regt.) v. Pte. Rowan (— Wilts.). Another good show Kelly not having so long a reach as his opponent lost a point or two in the first two rounds, but made up for it in the last. Result: Kelly the winner on points.

6 Rounds (8 stone). Private Foulkes (— Regt.) v. Sapper Goldsmith (R.E.). This was the best fight of the evening. In the first round it looked an easy thing for Goldsmith, but from the commencement of the second Foulkes improved wonderfully even so far as to bring Goldsmith to the boards. At the end of the third round Goldsmith brought Foulkes down just as the gong sounded. In the fourth both men were fairly even, but in the fifth Foulkes went down again. Referee's decision Goldsmith the winner.

6 Rounds (10 stone). Driver Page (R.F.A.) v. Pte. Beard (Regt.). An even fight throughout which the referee declared a draw.

4 Rounds (9st 2lb.) Pte. Douglas (— Regt.) v. Cpl. Sullets (A.S.C.). Another good contest, Sullets being the older man age told, but still he fought a plucky fight which ended in a draw.

Much praise is due to Captain Hopkins R.O.D. R.E.) the organiser of this tournament. Everything went off without a hitch, fight followed fight without a wait, which is a great item.

SOLDIERS AND LAND SETTLEMENT.

The problems of finding useful and congenial employment for discharged soldiers and of finding means of adding to our natural resources to a great extent coincide; and they are of such importance that any effort which is made towards their solution deserves attention. For this reason a book by two "temporary" officers, Captain W. H. Warman, of the Tank Corps, and Second-Lieutenant Collin Brooks, of the Machine-Gun Corps—"The Soldier Colonists," published by Messrs. Chatto and Windus—is welcome. The authors describe their work as "a plea for group organisation", and although they are concerned only with land-settlement in the Dominions and the Colonies, there is much in it which is applicable to land-settlement at home. It would be a calamity if the tendency of young officers and men to go "back to the land" after the war—a tendency which, apparently, has shown itself in large numbers of them—were left quite uncontrolled and illdirected, when training, organisation, and co-operation might make the movement one of the greatest value; and the argument in favour of settlement in communities on the regimental system, Captain Warman suggests—is one that should be examined carefully.

It is reported that the Attorney-General (Sir F. E. Smith, K.C., M.P.) has received many letters from officers and men serving in the forces who desire on demobilisation to study for the Bar, and who ask for advice. He proposes to devote an hour each week to helping soldiers in this position.
