EGYPT'S FINANCE.

G.O.C.'S PROCLAMATION.

As we stated yesterday, owing to the fact that no Ministry has yet been formed and consequently no Council meeting held since January, the following special order has been issued:

Whereas the Budget for the Financial Year 1919-1920 has been prepared by the Finance Committee in the form annexed to this Proclamation but it has not been possible to obtain for that Budget the sanctions prescribed by law and whereas it is a matter of urgent necessity that provision should be made for the receipts and expenditure of the coming Financial Year;

Now I, Edmund Henry Hynman Allenby, in virtue of the powers conferred on me as General Officer Commanding in Chief His Majesty's Forces in Egypt hereby order and declare as follows:—

1. The estimates of budgetary receipts for the year 1919-1920 are fixed at the sum of L.E. 28,850,000 as detailed in the annexed table.

2. The estimates of budgetary expenditure for the year 1919-1920 are fixed at the sum of L.E. 28,850,000 as detailed in the annexed table.

3. All Ministries and Departments of State are hereby authorised to act under this Proclamation in the same manner in all respects as if the Budget for the year 1919-1920 had been approved and put into force in the manner prescribed by law.

Cairo, March 31, 1919.

(Signed): E. H. H. Allenby,
General, Commanding-in-Chief
H.M. Forces in Egypt.

FINANCE COMMITTEE'S NOTE.

To the General Officer Commanding in Chief his Majesty's Forces in Egypt:—

The Budget which the Finance Committee has the honour to submit herewith was originally estimated to balance at L.E. 27,850,000, and thus exceeded the Budget of the current year by as much as it, in turn, exceeded that for 1917. In view of the recent disorders a sum of L.E. 1,000,000 has been inserted as a first and uninformed estimate of the cost of claims and liabilities thereby arising, and the Budget therefore now stands at a figure of L.E. 28,850,000.

On the expenditure side, war gratuities and special expenditure in connection with the war account for L.E. 1,905,000 and the balance of L.E. 26,945,000 is inflated by high prices; so that when comparison is made with pre-war Budgets, it has to be borne in mind that the difference in totals gives a very aggravated idea of the extent to which new services are in reality being provided.

The estimated receipts include a draft on the Reserve Fund of L.E. 1,550,000, allowing for the L.E. 1,000,000 mentioned above. A sum of L.E. 550,000 was similarly provided for in the estimates of the current year against the Reserve, in which the true reserve was estimated to yield L.E. 22,000,000. The actual receipts to February 28 have, in fact, reached the figure of L.E. 24,413,000 and, but for recent events, the total revenue for the year would probably not have fallen short of L.E. 27,000,000.

Further, the estimates for expenditure for the past few years are examined, it will be found that the actual expenditure has been considerably below the scale of the estimates presented.

In 1914 the difference was due to the fact that expenditure was strictly curtailed in the middle of the year on the outbreak of the European War. But in 1915, when the estimates were reduced to the greatest extent compatible with efficiency, the expenditure was L.E. 14,880,000, as against an original estimate of L.E. 18,000,000; and in 1916 and 1917, the accounts, neglecting supplementary estimates the grant of which is within the direction of the Council, show actual expenditure of L.E. 15,879,170, and L.E. 18,128,414 against estimates of L.E. 16,630,000 and L.E. 19,225,000 respectively.

The revenue estimates for 1919 were framed in a spirit neither of rashness nor of excessive caution; they represented the figure which, as far as could be judged, the revenue was likely to produce. What effect will in fact be produced by the recent disorders it is impossible to foresee; any resulting deficit will have to be met from the Reverve.

The main variations from the current year are given in the subjoined remarks:—

Customs and Excise, 1918, L.E. 5,260,000; 1919, L.E. 6,957,000.

The Customs revenue proper down to February 28, 1919, has produced L.E. 3,893,000, Tobacco L.E. 2,910,000, Excise L.E. 517,000. For the coming financial year, Customs were estimated to produce L.E. 4,200,000, Tobacco L.E. 2,350,000, and Excise, allowing for the continuance of the sugar duty for nine months, L.E. 407,000.

Ports and Lights, 1918, L.E. 64,000; 1919, L.E. 170,000.

In 1914 the estimate under this head was L.E. 436,000, of which L.E. 163,500 represented Quay dues now collected by the Customs, leaving L.E. 272,500 Ports and Lights dues proper.

Now that the war has ceased and shipping may be expected to commence to return to its normal volume, it is not unreasonable to assume that receipts will reach a figure equal to 62 per cent. of their pre-war volume.

Judicial and Registration Fees, 1918, L.E. 1,481,000; 1919, L.E. 1,960,000.

Receipts to February 28 total L.E. 1,468,000. A further L.E. 750,000 was anticipated from Railway receipts over the L.E. 6,000,000 estimated for this year. The actual receipts to February 28 are L.E. 6,498,000.

The anticipated expenditure of the Railways is L.E. 5,595,000 and the net receipts would therefore be L.E. 1,155,000, which on a capital account of 29½ millions is under 4 per cent.

It is however impossible to say what revenue the State Railways will be in a position to earn.

The growth of business allows an increase of L.E. 65,000 in the Telegraph receipts; Telephones stand at the same figure as this year, i.e. L.E. 200,000.

The revenue from the Post Office is estimated at L.E. 375,000, or L.E. 60,000 more than last year.

Military exemption fees are put down at L.E. 150,000, as against L.E. 90,000 for the current year; the receipts down to February 28 were L.E. 176,000. The yield under this head appears to depend mainly on the wealth of the general population, and on that ground there was no reason to anticipate any falling off.

Interest on Funds, 1918, L.E. 1,098,000; 1919, L.E. 2,096,000.

The increase in investments, the state of the Government's bank balances and the yield of the Government's share in the profits of the Note Issue all justify the estimate under this head.

Miscellaneous Receipts and Dues, 1918, L.E. 571,000; 1919, L.E. 700,000.

The main increases under this head, which include thirty-three separate items, are receipts from various companies and school fees.

Extraordinary Receipts, 1918, L.E. 148,000; 1919, L.E. 540,000.

The greater part of this will be derived from sales of land.

It will be seen that the anticipated increases were mainly based on the expectation that the general prosperity of the country would continue; time will show whether this expectation is still justified.

EXPENDITURE.

The main increases are under the following heads:—"

H.H. the Sultan's Cabinet. — The increase is due to the inclusion of credits for the maintenance and upkeep of the yacht "Mahroussa" and to the increased cost of uniforms, etc., for the Guard and Band.

Ministry of Finance.

Central Administration. — The total expenditure is L.E. 368,053, representing an increase of L.E. 33,558 over the modified credit for 1918, after deducting the cost of the Shubra Research Works, transferred to the budget of the Ministry of Public Works, and of the Medical Commission, transferred to the budget of the Department of Public Health.

L.E. 2,650 of the increase represents a transfer of posts from the Government Press, it having been found preferable to attach the Controller of Printing and a part of his staff to the Central Administration of the Ministry.

ALEXANDRIA MUNICIPAL LIBRARY.

During the month of March there were 357 European readers and 345 Arabic. The works consulted numbered 888. Out of this number 499 were from the European section while 389 belonged to the Arabic. The volumes numbered 656 European and 492 Arabic. The European books consulted were as follows: French 116, English 64, Italian 8, Greek 7, German 3, Latin 1.

This morning the latest times for posting at Alexandria for a French mail via Alexandria and Marseilles are: French correspondence, Thursday, April 3, 10 a.m.; registered correspondence, Thursday, April 3, 9 a.m.

CAIRO AMUSEMENTS.

The Kursaal. — Improving business is recorded at the kursaal which is not surprising having regard to the very fine programme presented by the Bandman Comedy Company. There was a good house on Monday evening when numerous patrons took the opportunity to re-visit "When Knights were Bold"—that farcical comedy in three acts by Sidney Grundy in which the inimitable "Jimmy" Welsh made such fame in England. In the very capable hands of Mr. Compton Coutts, who is a most amusing and dashing Sir Guy de Vere, the comedy loses none of its freshness; indeed interest was sustained throughout. Mr. Coutts was heartily applauded at the fall of the curtain. Other leading characters have before been reviewed but a word of appreciation is due to Miss Cathleen Doyle for her portrayal of the chirping-seeking Hortense and to Miss Dorothea Temple who was a most stately Zion. Mrs. Wasbegrave, whilst Mr. Carl Lawson gets every mot out of his part as the scheming Isaacson. Mr. David Keir again delighted the audience with his jestic dance and once more proved his versatility. For the convenience of the troops the time for opening the performance has been put forward temporarily to 8 p.m. To-night (Thursday) "Daddy Long-Legs" will be staged for the first time in Cairo.
