EGYPT'S HEALTH.

BENEFITS UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

The-report of the Commission on Public Health now sitting will, we understand, deal shaunting with every side of the problem in Egypt. The question that will then preent itself will be: How far will the authorities go in carrying out the recommendations of the members who, judging from the names composing the Commission, will be thorough and radical in their summing up.

Egypt has undoubtedly benefited from the sanitary point of view from the presence of a large army in the country. As everyone is awars, the sanitation of research of the country has a severyone is awars, the sanitation of research of the country has undoubtedly been spared any great scourge in the way of epidemiological to the first of course to the sanitary series of the country has undoubtedly been spared any great scourge in the way of epidemiological to the Municipality in initiating the work, and the second is the result of the splendid camp sanitary system in vogw. If the special camps and the splendid camp sanitary system in vogw. If erence which have so brauded many sections of administration in this country have been put down, and, for the most part, rightly too, to the absolutely sterlining effect produced of reform. Scarcely one country possessing these concessions would for a moment allow the state of thinger to exist within its borders that is prevalent in Egypt, and the state of thinger to exist within its borders that is prevalent in Egypt, and the state of thinger to exist within its borders that is prevalent in Egypt, and the detriment of many important phases of its internal economy. For example; and the camp of the state of the day of the state of the state of the day of the state of the state of the day at the colates of dusthins business and the security of food and by human beings (chieff, and the state of the state on see street he was green the reply that the whole "impasse" being private property, the Municipals scarced services are absolutely neglected by the Municipal scarced services are should be suffered to the state on see street he was green the reply that the whole "impasse" being private property, the Municipal's carried out without deviate the clear, there. Just end, of many similar details that, when once the Capitulations of Publia Hasila to be lifted which is a cafe. Here at intervals are evidence through administrative overlapping will be carried out without deviate though co-ordination under a Ministry of Health imperative.

So one knows when the Capitulations will be done away with, but when the well-being of a whole noise at stake some scheme could nalies as exist at present would be put an end to and full powers be girgs to a Public Health Ministry. Next to private interests the interest of Government Departments and the susceptibilities of various official dignities are perhaps the hardiest things to overcome, and when déaling with remedies for the present situation will not be less drastic in currying out recommendations submitted to them through being confronted with difficulties which intrigue and self-interest are sure to put in their way.

RAMADAN IN PALESTINE

It is reported from Palestine that spe-cial arrangements have been made during Ramadan. Cutée have been closed dur-ing the day and opened at night. All Mos-lems have been act prohibited during the weeks of fasting. About five tone of sugar-war distributed among the inhabitants of Ramleh, Lud and the neighbouring dis-tricts at low prices.
