ALEXANDRIA AMUSEMENTS.

"BILLETTED" AT THE ALHAMBRA.— The Alhambra, Alexandria, was crowded on Thursday night when the Bandman Comedy Company produced that exceedingly funny and clever military farce "Billetted." This is the war-time play by Messrs. F.C. Dersee and H.M. Harwood which had such a long and successful run at the Royalty Theatre, London. The story gives excellent scope for some clever acting and dialogue. Colonel Preedy is a big, earnest man of up-to-date military type but nevertheless susceptible to sentiment. In this role, Mr. John Carr had a great part which he played with gusto and his exchanges, first with a brother officer and then with Mrs. Taradane, were natural to perfection. Miss Barraclough as Mrs. Taradane, on whom the Colonel has been billetted, again proved herself a great actress, the contrast between her conversations with Penelope, (Miss F. Lewis) and the deft handling of the men folk calling for some very clever work to command success. The audience gave her quite an ovation after a particularly good climax to the second act. Miss Lewis, who was playing this part on a sudden notice owing to the unfortunate illness of Miss Doyle is seen in one of her best characters and was continuously applauded. As Peter Taradane, the roving husband, (masquerading as a captain), Mr. Carl Lawson was responsible for some fine wise cracks when he joins Colonel Preedy at the Taradane billet the comedy is fast and furious. Mr. Lawson gave a perfect portrayal of the husband who cares and pretends he doesn't and he shone in some very adroitly conceived situations. "Billetted" terminates in a manner that is at too novel to be repeated. Mr. Compton Coutts as the Reverend Liptrott had a role that rivalled his masterly rendering of "Grumpy," his sublime conceiving at times being quite ingenious. The Miss Liptrott of Miss Dudley Ward and the Mr. McFarlane of Mr. David Keir were well acted.

SAN STEFANO CASINÒ. — As we have already announced the popular San Stefano Casino Hotel is keeping open all through the winter. The weekly Saturday evening dances are also being kept on and continue to be very popular. Intending diners should book by letter as early as possible on Saturday mornings in order that all attention may be given to their wine and other orders. The dances are strictly reserved to subscribers to the Casino and habitual diners at the restaurant.

THE MAJESTIC HOTEL. — This first-class establishment continues to be one of the most popular hotels in Alexandria. The secret of its success lies not only in its exceedingly handy central position but in its skilful cooking and the careful attention that is paid to all details of the service. The Majestic is within a few minutes walk of all the important business houses in the town and is but a short drive from the Cairo station. The Majestic Palace Hotel at the other side of the square makes excellent residential quarters.

MUSIC IN ALEXANDRIA.

The sixth symphonic concert at the Alhambra Theatre to-morrow morning at 10.45 contains several items which will not fail to attract Alexandria music lovers. We are very pleased to see that these Sunday morning concerts are beginning to acquire considerable popularity—they deserve all the support that can be given to them as they cost a great deal to organise and are about the only really artistic weekly public event in the whole of Alexandria. Following is the programme:— Mascagni, Le Maschere, Ouverture, a) Glazounow, 2me: Sérénade, b) Galletti, Danse Slave; Weber, Concerto pour Piano et Orchestre, Piano: Mlle Edyth Carasso; Beethoven, 9me. Symphonie, 1re & 2me Partie; Mercadante, Il lamento del Barde, Symph.

ALEXANDRIA'S HEALTH.

THE MUNICIPALITY'S REMISSNESS.

We are informed that yesterday, about noon, an official from the Alexandria Municipality and a Sanitary officer visited the Impasse Artinoff, off Sherif Pasha Street, (five days after the appearance of our leading article and letter on the subject in our columns) and three days after an urgent request to the Director of the Municipality to have the matter attended to. A few hours afterwards a representative of the "Gazette" visited the place and found most of the rubbish heaps cleared away, though one large heap between two buildings round the corner to the right, behind the Ramleh Boulevard, still remained. The most offensive spot, the small drain under the windows of the Cotton Control Board, had been partly filled by two or three bricks showing plainly the filth below, which had not been cleared away.

(TO THE EDITOR OF THE EGYPTIAN GAZETTE.)

Sir,—I have read with much interest your remarks in regards to a issue about the carelessness of the Municipal authorities of Alexandria. I have been staying in this town for the last six months, and I have often wondered where the Municipal officials can be. I refer especially to the inspectors of health, and the sweeping and watering services. For leaving out Sherif Pasha street and the ex-Rue Rossetti, most of the other streets of the town are in a shocking condition of filth and stink.

I have the misfortune to live in Salah el-Din, where the house-rents are decently high. I don't know why, and I can positively state that this main thoroughfare is used as the many small side streets that lead to it from the famous and parallel artery of Attarine are kept in a shocking state. I say nothing of the dilapidated condition of the side-paths which are, in some parts, full of holes and traps that form dangerous breakneck traps for innocent pedestrians. But the point is that wherever one walks, at any hour of the day, horrible swarms of flies rise set up before one's steps; they are so thick as to make one shudder. The same thing happens when one passes near a fruiterer's, butcher's, or a grocer's shop.

The reason of all this is, in my opinion, that the roads in that district are insufficiently watered and periodically swept by the Municipal agents, and that dirt and refuse are allowed to stand in every corner, in defiance of all standing laws and regulations.

One would have thought that now, during this time, of epidemic more than ever, care would be taken for the cleanliness and health of the town. The attention of the Municipal inspectors should be directed more towards the busy and densely populated districts in which the microbes of disease find more favourable ground for their development, than in the less inhabited parts of the town.

Neglect of such simple things not be remedied at once, it would be really marvellous if the terrible influenza, which has already caused many victims, did not make fearful havoc among the population.

Yours, &c.,
DISGUSTED.

VILLAGE FIGHTS.

DEATH FOR P.T. 15.

It is reported from Minia that on Wednesday last a fight took place between the inhabitants of Zahra and Nazlet Obeid districts. The Mamour accompanied by a body of soldiers went to the place where fire-arms and other weapons were being used by both parties. Several of the villagers were injured. An enquiry was opened and it was discovered that the cause of the fight was a dispute which arose between the inhabitants of both districts for a piece of Government land which had been let to the inhabitants of Nazlet Obeid for plantation. The inhabitants of the other district claimed that the land was theirs or belonged to the omdeh of Tahna.

Another big fight occurred a few days ago, between two families of el-Tawahieh district because of a dispute which rose between two members over a sum of P.T. 15. The result of the fight was that a man named Kirolos was killed, another seriously injured and three others hurt.

Still another fight occurred in the Afadra district, Badari Markaz, resulting to the injury of three of the combatants. An enquiry has been opened.

REVUE COMMERCIALE.

COTON.

Alexandrie, le 29 Novembre 1918.

Le Comité de la Distribution du coton au Contrôle des Cotons vient d'imposé des restrictions aux affaires spéculatives. Des fluctuations dépassant cent points par jour ne seront pas admises. On sait que l'Américain Middling s'élevait pendant la guerre de 10,77, à 30.20. On estime que les besoins mondiaux suivront désormais une marche ascendante; les rapports de l'Etranger indiquent une consommation supplémentaire de deux millions de balles. Le coton ne manquera pas, mais il importe d'empêcher que cet article soit manipulé par une spéculation néfaste, qui ne manquera pas d'exploiter l'intensement les populations affectées par la guerre. Il est probable que dans cet ordre d'idées, la Réquisition du coton égyptien soit maintenue l'année prochaine, ce qui serait profitable surtout pour l'Agriculture égyptienne, qui n'avait jamais jusqu'ici vu les prix de cette année.

Le Département de l'Agriculture des Etats Unis d'Amérique annonce que le chiffre de coton égrené jusqu'au 13 Novembre courant s'élève à 1,631,000 balles.

A l'Intérieur, la 3e cueillette est terminée. L'opinion prédominante est que nous atteindrons aisément les 5 millions de cantars, vu la diminution des dégâts causés par le ver rose et la supériorité de la qualité.

Dans la Lancashire les vues ont commencé à devenir plus modérées. L'idée de réaliser encore des bénéfices fantastiques semble désormais abandonnée. La réduction de 40 pour cent des broches imposée par le Board of Trade, qui a été une des principales causes du renchérissement des filés, ne restera en vigueur dans le Lancashire que jusqu'à l'arrivée du nouveau coton, qui congestionne déjà notre port et ceux d'Amérique. Les filatures feront déduction dans le prix du frét à été décrétée.

La Commission du Contrôle de Coton informe les Maisons autorisées à acheter du coton pour son compte et qui recevront des lots parmi ceuxci-dessous, que les Bordereaux se trouvera, devront les presser séparement et en informer le Président de la Commission des Experts.

Les arrivages se ralentissent par suite du manque de place à Alexandrie. Ils s'élèvent cette année à 245.104 cantars contre 289.671, pour la période correspondante de l'année passée.

Le stock est de 2.549.445 cantars contre 1.946.575 à pareille date l'année dernière.

Les exportations de la semaine atteignent 15.307 balles contre 20.469 pour la même époque en 1917.

GRAINES DE COTON.

Les exportations de la semaine s'élèvent à 133.146 ardebs contre 9.488, pour la même période correspondante de l'année passée.

Les recettes sont de 148.938 ardebs contre 143.474 pour la même époque en 1917.

Le stock est de 44.696 ardebs et la consommation locale a absorbé jusqu'ici 200.211 ardebs.

"THE NEW EUROPE."

South eastern and central Europe are in the course of being changed entirely, and if someone is expected to be kept abreast of the latest political developments they should at once procure the "Egyptian Gazette" Number 3 map, which includes the greater part of Austria, all Hungary, the Adriatic coast, Serbia, Bulgaria, Greece, Albania, Turkey in Europe, part of Asia Minor, Roumania, Montenegro, and parts of Russia and Italy. It is of special interest as the new States being formed in Austria and Hungary can be seen and also the Italian claims to the Adriatic. There are only a very few copies of this map left in stock.
