THE CAVALLINI TRIAL.

ROME, March 25.

During the Cavallini trial Com. Gasti, the head of the Investigation Department, deposed that Yaghen Pasha was considered an enemy of Italy against which he had worked during the Lybyan war. He confirmed that Yaghen Pasha, Bolo Pasha, Cavallini and Adda had mysterious financial relations. He discovered that Cavallini's passports were not in order and gave instructions for him to be shadowed but the latter made no further trips abroad as soon as Italy declared war on Germany.

demonstrations or disturbances taking place in Cairo. The city is quiet again and streets have begun to take their normal appearance though business continues to be at comparative standstill. The tramways are now circulating in greater number. The company has been able to run the Abbassia Line besides those of Shoubrah, Zamalek, Sporting Club and Bab el Hadid-Ismailia-Ataba el Khadra Circular lines. Of course they are only running between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. but even this is a great relief to the inhabitants of Cairo who have suffered considerably during the last three weeks from lack of communication owing to the strikes of the cabdrivers on the one hand (though this only lasted for a few days) and of the tramway men on the other.

THE RAILWAYS.

So far the only passenger trains running regularly at present are two trains for Alexandria and one for Port Said daily.

The Egyptian State Railways Administration with the assistance of the Military authorities, are however pushing on with great energy the work of repair of the damaged lines, but it is not likely that the Upper Egypt main line will become wholly fit for traffic again for some time owing to the great damage done to the line, the number of stations destroyed and the signalling and other machines smashed. The railway authorities may, however, be able to run trains on some parts of the line shortly. For instance, the line as far as Wasta, will be restored in a few days, while that between Shellal and Assiut or even Minieh, is said to be in a condition which will enable the authorities to make it serviceable in a short time.

A delegation of the railway workers from the workshops at Boulac, who have been on strike for about two weeks, headed by Maitre Fernand Zananiri, was received by Brigadier General Sir George Macauley on Saturday and after long deliberations it was decided that the strikers should resume work immediately.

OFFICIALS CONGREGATED AT CAIRO.

According to an Arabic contemporary, some of the Government officials of Upper Egypt, are being employed at the Ministry of Interior, and some officers who were in the service of the Kena Police, are now employed at the Cairo Police Quarters, pending permission to resume work in their posts in Upper Egypt. The Ministry of the Interior has only sent Abdel Latif Ahmed Effendi, Mamour of Nagi Hamada Markaz, to his Markaz, by boat accompanied by a military guard to keep order, and restore public security in the Markaz.

Many engineers, and Irrigation officials are now in Cairo. Some of them reached Cairo by motor cars from Fayoum and others from El-Wasta.

Aly Bey Ezet, Chef du Parquet of Beni Suef, and Mahmoud Bey Fouad, Juge de Renvoie in the Fayoum Court, have reached Cairo. Bikbashi Mohamed Effendi Kamel El Rahmany, Commandant of the Beni Suef Police who was staying in El Wasta, returned to his post at Beni Suef on Sunday night last. Some workmen who are repairing the Railway line from Caliub to Shebin El Kanater are working under the supervision of a special police guard appointed by the commandant of the Galiubieh Police.

The following note of appreciation has been sent by General Boyle to the Commandant, Alexandria City Police & M.C.O.:—

H.Q. Alexandria District,
March 27, 1919.

I desire to convey to you and to the other Officers N.C.Os. and men of the Alexandria City Police, an expression of my very great appreciation of their tact, energy and general bearing during the recent disturbances in this city. They have co-operated whole-heartedly in the restoration and preservation of order and the assistance they have rendered has been of great help to the Military Authorities, and deserves the grateful thanks of all law-abiding inhabitants.

I would be glad if you could see your way to have the foregoing brought to the knowledge of all ranks.

(Signed) R. C. BOYLE
Brigadier-General, G.O.C.,

GREEKS IN THE FAYOUM.

A Greek correspondence writes:-

The local Greek papers from Fayoum announces that much property has been destroyed in this town. A deputation of Greeks went to the Mudirieh the day pdeceding the beginning of the disorders and asked for protection. The Mudir advised them to shut their shops and to remain in their houses. The Bedouins and the rabble commenced their evil business by destroying the shop of Mr. Scopelitis. Nothing was left in it. Afterwards they made an attack in the house of Dr. Condylios, who, with the members of his family, was saved by going from the roof terrace to another house. The Bedouins fired at them as they went. The archeological collection of Dr. Condylios, valued at L.E.13,000, has been robbed, and L.E.3,000 in money. The value of the goods pillaged or destroyed is L.E.24,000 pounds. The pharmacies of Zagori Brothers have been destroyed. The lives of the Greeks have been protected by the British force which fortunately arrived in time. The property and the harvest of the Greeks outside Fayoum town have been destroyed. At Shubra-el-Nahla, of Sharkieh, the Greek residents were the objects of a wholesale attack. The omdeh endeavoured to save them and their property. The house of Mr. Cambaniaris was besieged and some two hundred demonstrators endeavoured to smash in the door. Cambaniaris, his family and some Greeks who were assembled in his house, in the hope that it would be saved, managed to escape but the house itself was destroyed and a tin of petroleum was brought to set it on fire. Nothing was left in the house by the rioters.

CAIRO AMUSEMENTS.

THE RADIUM CINEMA. — The programme of this cinema for the week commencing yesterday contains a piece entitled "The Japanese Butterfly" showing some very picturesque views of the land of the rising sun; a sensational two reeled Vordale Film drama of "The Pump of Death" and one of Charlie Chaplin's most amusing comedies. The pièce de resistance is a 5 reeled Oscar Film drama of modern life in 5 reels entitled "The Ridiculous," written by Mme. Olga Benatti, and Mr. Mario Bonnard the famous French artist. At general request and for the last time this cinema is shortly giving again Charlie Chaplain's three reeled comedy "A Dog's Life" which will be followed by three more of Charlie's three reeled one Million Dollar Films entitled "Shoulder-Arms."

THE SALLE KLEBER. — A most varied and interesting programme is to be seen at the Cinema Salle Kleber this week, the various items being screened in the following order. The Government Topical Budget, of the best informed pictures panoramas; Charley Chaplin in "The Adventurer," guaranteed scream, "England's Power," or the training of the Tank squadrons; a delightful comedy featuring Marcel Levesque; and the continuation of that exciting serial "The Count of Monte Cristo," in its fourth episode entitled "Sinbad the Sailor."

ALEXANDRIA AMUSEMENTS.

THE ALHAMBRA.—Good houses continue to be the order at the Alhambra where Mr. Maurice E. Bandman's Musical Comedy Co., are again presenting some of the best from their repertoire this week. On Monday evening that very popular production "The Girl in the Taxi" was staged and scored its now customary success. To-night at 8 p.m. "The Dairymaids" will be presented and the repertoire for the remainder of the week will be "The Runaway Girl," "The Count of Luxembourg"—for the first time in Alexandria—and "The Million Dollar Girl." There will be a Matinée on Saturday at 4 o'clock of "The Dairymaids."

THE GRUMBLERS AT MONTAZAH.—The Grumblers Concert Party made a welcome re-appearance at Montazah last Saturday evening before a crowded and most enthusiastic audience. The programme was carried through with a delightful swing; the concerted numbers scoring especially. Jack Jordan was in great form and his rendering of "Lend Me Your Aid" was magnificent. In a deserved encore he sang "Araby" with great zest and feeling. Later this talented artiste scored a great success in the song scena "Cigarette." Eric Shepherd was given a great reception in his opening song "Canterbury Town" and in response gave "Syeda Bint." As a "hint" he was perhaps more sparkling than ever; the duet with Jordan taking the audience by storm. Ted Scott was fine from trim and soon had his audience roaring. He was at his best in "Impersonations" but his other numbers were equally well received. Ernie Mitchell was very funny in his song "Early Closing Day" and had to return to give a clever monologue. He also conducted the Grumblers Band in very energetic, though hardly Jimmy Glover style. Scott and Mitchell were extremely good in their double; the gags were original and delighted the house. Bert Taylor rendered "The Sentinel" in a fine voice and was deservedly encored. He returned later to give "Bedouin Love Song." Syd Harris was in his usual inimitable style at the piano and we were only sorry that the programme did not include a solo by this fine pianist. The Party are to be congratulated on a fine, talented, performance which was accorded vociferous applause at the close.
