DR. GRANVILLE'S DEFENCE It is impossible to deal with the lengthy reply of Dr. Granville to the report of the Ballour commission in detail, but the arguments in many cnses are very poor. For instance, in an-wer to the criticisms of that report to the effect that the Councillors do not visit the city from the point of view of health inspection at least

EPIDEMIC OF HICCOUGH.

At Vienna a fresh illness has broken out among the masses, which takes the form of an epidemic of hiccough. It ap-pears to be a nerve complaint, evidently consequent upon continuous underfeeding. It is causing serious complications.
