We are continually receiving complaints from our military subscribers regarding the delay in the receiving continuation of the date of the day of pablication at the P.O., Alexandria. The G.P.O. hands them over to the Military P.O., whence they are sent to their various destinations. All such delays are not the fault of the anagement of the "Egyptian Casette." Military subscribers, on changing their address, stopping or the single destination of the latest wrappers received, thus avoiding mistakes and confusion.
