150,000 ARMENIANS FED BY ENGLAND.

Lord Curson recently stated in the House of Lords that with regard to the Armenians and those unlappy bands who had been driven out of their country, who had been driven out of their country, who seemed destined to be the most fugility races of analyind, there were at this moment in Syrias and Palestine over 40,000, were being cared for as far as possible. In Mesopofamia there were 40,000 refugees being feed at British expense, and in Transcaucasis there were about 45,000. In other words, there was a total of something little caucasis there were about 45,000. In other words, there was a total of something little being keep from starvations by the efforts of Grest Britain.
