OUR STORES IN FRANCE.

Sir Eric Gedes, First Lord of the Admiralty, said our national debt before the war was 2700,000,000, but in France to-day we had property worth more than that. We had enough railway stock and material there to complete two of the biggest railways in this country, and we were also the largest owners of canal stock in the world.

NORTH POLE BY SUBMARINE.

STEFANSON'S NEW PLAN-

The explorer Vilhjahmur Stefanson pur poses to attempt to reach the North Pol-mext summer by submarine. The lates model is understood to be capable of be ing navigated at a depth of 200 feet, will a crutising radius of 10,000 miles. Explorer is of opinion that to explore a North Fole by means of an berepart will be more difficult than to reach it by a submarine.

Stefanson recently returned from the Arctic Expedition, which began in 1913, chen the Kurluk his chief boat, was-rushed in the ice. The intervening years have been spent in exploring Banks Island and Prince Patrick Island, to the orth of which Stefansson discovered some
