FIVE HUNDRED LITTLE ONES FED

The scenes witnessed on Saturday afternoon last at the athletic grounds of the Maccabeus Cubb, when over five humdred of Cairo's noal of their lives, were in every way remarkable. Up till the very eve of the occasion, some fear wasentertained by the promoters of the feast, lest the response to the invitation of the difficulty of convincing the poor derelicits that no harm was meant towards them. That this apprehension was not altogether baseless is clear from the reports of the helpers whose duty it wasalleys for urchins of both sexes, sufficiently ill-clad and lungry to be eligible as guests. These all agree that when
