ALEXANDRIA SOUP KITCHEN.

EPICURIAN TASTES OF PATRONS

EPICURIAN TASTES OF PATRONS.

The Municipal Soup Kitchen at Kom elShukafa, continues to help the poorer classin the locality, and is attracting more clients than before. On Sunday last not fewer than 240 persons got their food from the kitchen; but during the first bedays there word all classes made as usual special proparations for Bairam, and second, because the Kitchen did not cook special food on the occasion. On the first Bairam day, for instance, the Soup Kitchen offered "futfelt" (tens, with rivand as people wanted better day; it did not class. On Thursday only 91 persons betook themselves to the Kit chen for food because the meal was lentils.

NO FREE BATHS YET.

NO FREE BATHS YET.

The "Hamman Dahab" has not yet been opened for the poor in accordance with the Municipal scheme, of providing free baths, because the Ministry of Wakts, which promised to make the necessary re pairs to the bath, has not yet done so. "Fittaan ies salamat," slow buttsure, is the motto of the Municipal fathers.

SUDAN NOTES AND RECORDS.

We have reviewd a copy of "Sudan Rotes and Records" for July the contents of which are as usual of a highly interesting order. Among the articles are "Installation of the King of Skillake" by P. Munro; "The Lotuko" by the Hon. F.R. R. Somerset, Natural History Store "The Khawahda Ir of Abu Jurid." by S. Hillelson, as well as Notes, Reviews and Correspondence.

Next week the Cairo Assires will try Abdel Megid Effendi Nassif, son of the well known poet of Cairo Hefny Bey Nas-sif, for attempting to procure the escape of a prisoner from Tura Prison.
