CAIRO SWINDLING CASES.

WARNING FROM THE GOVERNORATE.

On Saturday last the Cairo Governorate posted up a warning to the public to the following effect:—Swindling cases have increased of late but it has been noticed that only one method is followed every time. The swindler enters a shop and purchases some articles; the ten asks the shopkeeper to send one of his employees to his house with him in order to get the money. On the graph generality, the properties of the change, which he has taken from the

It is reported from AI Fashin that on Thursday night last some Bedouin theres arrived in Safanie district with the in-tention of stealing cattle. The inhabi-tants and the ghaffins of the district beard them and at once several shots were ex-changed between the parties resulting in the injury of two natives. The thieves were all arrested and an enquiry is still armed theves raided the district of Naulet Mohamed, attacked one of the inhabitants
