NEW POETRY OF EGYPT.

"When Chorrees the Great King took Egypt, it is told He gathered all the Christians into his hall of cold. He gathered all the Christians into his hall of gold.

"I put to you this questhion—you who seek God, say white fr which I stand, you set your God to high— Why do you Christians quarrel so? Show me the truth below In Persia we aim higher—God there's a golde of fire."

"The Time's not yet. 'Tis in the heart of man.
Not in the teaching, lies the fend, We've still to alane our plan
Only when man's done fighting and enslaving
other men
Shall we be free."

But it is not always in this didactic strain that the same old troublesome subject is treated. With rare tenderness he makes Sandi that the same old troublesome subject is treated. With rare tenderness he makes Sandi tell us: "Said he" Search God more simply. You may Benger's Food is appetising and delicious. Even the fresh new milk used to prepare it is made lighter and easier to digest.] In the tin one food may look like another, but there the resemblance of any other food to Benger's ends. You prepare in a way different from oth rs!. Fresh new milk is always used, and in a few minutes (see directions) both the Food and the milk become blended into a deiny cream by a gentle first process of direction, self-contained in the Food.

To this, and to its great mutritive power, Benger's owes its unique position as "the Food the Dector orders."
