OUR EX-SOLDIERS AND AUSTRALIA

With reference to the emigration of British ex-soldiers Mr. Watt has inform-ed Mr. Hughes that while they were an-xious to secure a share of Britons settling corresca, no attempt should be made to tackle the problem until the dastralians had been repartiated. Then they would gladly walcome them, and hoped that a scheme would be arranged whereby Bri-tons could be brought out after the Au-tralians had been demodified.
